

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 2

8 FEBRUARY 1977

Carter to nominate Turner to head CIA

Washington

The White House confirmed Monday, that President Carter will nominate Adm. Stansfield Turner, commander of NATO forces in southern Europe, to be director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Admiral Turner graduated at the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1946.

Mr. Carter's original choice for the job, former top Kennedy aide Theodore Sorensen, asked for his nomination to be withdrawn in the face of Senate opposition.